 - a) Expenses charged against this grant may not be incurred prior to the effective date of the grant or subsequent to the termination date, and may be incurred only as necessary to carry out the purposes and activities of the approved program.
 - b) The grantee organization is responsible for the expenditure of funds and for maintaining adequate supporting records consistent with generally accepted accounting practices.
 - c) Equipment purchased with grant funds shall be the property of the grantee organization so long as it is not diverted from the purposes for which the grant was made. If the purpose of use is changed or the grantee organization goes out of existence, the property reverts to the Pew Fund.

This would include changes in purpose, staff, funding from other sources, relationships with other agencies, etc. (If there is any doubt about the importance of any changes, Pew Fund staff should be consulted.)
 - e) The grantee must be able and willing to prove to the Pew Fund's satisfaction that no portion of the grant funds has been used for purposes not clearly identified as charitable under the law, both State and Federal.
 - f) The Pew Fund reserves the right at any time to terminate this grant if, in its discretion, it shall determine that the grantee has made any misrepresentations, has in any way misappropriated grant funds, or has done anything inconsistent with the Grant Agreement, including but not necessarily limited to any special conditions.
3. Reversion of Grant Funds: Grantee will return to the Pew Fund any unexpended funds at the close of the project period. Funds will be promptly returned: (a) If the Pew Fund elects to terminate said grant in accordance with Paragraph 2(f) above; or (b) if the grantee loses its exemption from Federal income taxation as provided for under Section 501(c)(3), of the Internal Revenue Code. The declaration or filing of bankruptcy by the grantee will automatically terminate the grant.

4. Limit of Commitment: Unless otherwise provided in writing, this grant is made with the understanding that the Pew Fund has no obligation to provide other or additional support to the grantee.

If you agree to the grant conditions as stated, please indicate agreement to such terms by having the enclosed copy of this letter countersigned by an appropriate officer of your organization and return to the Mary and Robert Pew Public Education Fund.
